We manage a $94.6B<sup>1</sup> portfolio of high-performing assets across residential, logistics, retail, office, and mixed-use strategies. Our local teams serve 790 properties totaling over 269 million square feet globally. Historically, Hines has developed, redeveloped or acquired approximately 1,639 properties, totaling over 577 million square feet, with another 197 projects totaling more than 103.6 million square feet currently in design or under construction.

Hines came to prominence as the developer of landmark office buildings in major cities across the U.S. The firm revolutionized the industry by introducing signature architecture for multi-tenant buildings, and higher standards for all aspects of building design, operations and management. Among Hines' best-known projects are: The Galleria and Pennzoil Place in Houston; Five Hundred Boylston in Boston; the Philip Johnson-designed 53rd at Third in New York City; 101 California in San Francisco; Three First National Plaza in Chicago; the Cesar Pelli-designed Wells Fargo Center in Minneapolis; and One Ninety One Peachtree Tower in Atlanta.

In 1974, Hines ventured outside of the U.S. and entered the international real estate market. Since then, the firm has completed, acquired and/or redeveloped projects totaling more than 223 million square feet including such notable office projects as DZ Bank in Berlin by Frank Gehry; Main Tower in Frankfurt; 99 Queen Victoria in London; Pórtico in Madrid; Ducat Place in Moscow; Uptown München in Munich; EDF Tower in Paris; Torre Almirante in Rio de Janeiro; and Panamérica Park in São Paulo. Other notable residential, retail and mixed-use international projects include Diagonal Mar in Barcelona; Del Bosque in Mexico City; and Metropolitan in Warsaw.

In more recent years, Hines developed such iconic projects as Texas Tower in Houston; 555 Greenwich and One Vanderbilt in New York City; CIBC Square and T3 Bayside in Toronto, Ontario; T3 Minneapolis in Minneapolis; West Edge in Los Angeles; Salesforce Tower in San Francisco; River Point in Chicago; Corporativo Neuchatel in Mexico City; Skypark Valdebebas in Madrid, Spain; Torre Velasca and Milanosesto in Milan, Italy; Aer in Munich, Germany; 600 Collins and T3 Collingwood in Melbourne, Australia; One Horizon Center in Gurgaon; and One Museum Place in Shanghai.

Hines executes its business strategies by integrating its investment management teams with local market personnel in 176 U.S. cities and 206 international cities. The firm pursues investment strategies across the risk spectrum: from core to value added to opportunistic. Hines' investor partners and clients include major public and private pension funds, government investment authorities, insurance companies, financial institutions, endowments and individual investors.

Hines has long been a leader in sustainable design and in promoting sustainability programs around the world and is committed to a net zero carbon target by 2040 without buying offsets. The firm partners with multiple institutions to identify best operating practices and cutting-edge technologies in order to stay in the forefront of building operations.

In 66 years, Hines grew from a one-man operation in Houston, to an international enterprise. With an unrivaled story of experience, a knowledgeable employee base with significant executive tenure and an unwavering commitment to excellence in products and services, Hines continues to thrive as it adds value to real estate around the world.
